BARBAROSSA LEATHER

Barbarossa Leather started in the United States 40 years ago as a family owned business. Originally located in New York City's fashion district in the 80's catering to clients like Donna Karen, Steve Madden, Carlos Falchi, Calvin Klein, Ralph Lauren and Kate Spade.

Today the company is run by two brothers, Leonardo and Alejandro and is located outside Wellington, Florida. The company caters to various industries of the interior design trade: including hospitality, contract, private and corporate jets, automotive, yachts and residential design.

We create over a 1000 different leathers and color options. With the ability to customize every aspect of the leather production process, we are able to supply our clients with an infinite array of colors and textures.

As a world leader in innovative leathers, Barbarossa Leather is one of only a few companies in the world that can supply creative leathers in full hide format, and we are proud to continually refine our craft and consistently launch new collections.

BARBAROSSA WALLCOVERINGS

Raffia Wallpaper

Barbarossa has always been in the business of creating art. Until recently, our canvas has only been leather, but during our worldly travels, we discovered the natural handwoven raffia in its place of origin: Madagascar Our fascination with raffia stemmed from its similar traits to leather. As with our leather, good raffia wallcovering is only produced using hands, eyes, and a sense for beautiful products.

Our attention to detail, custom coloring, and hand finishes has set Barbarossa apart in the leather business for the last four decades. Now we are bringing these same capabilities to the world of raffia wallpaper!
