Meg Fiora is compelled by color and its ability to give a space life. Owner of award-winning Fiora Design in Cincinnati, Meg connects with clients by creating spaces that are deeply personal and feature custom details. An advocate for design that means something and speaks to people, rather than design just for aesthetics, Meg has partnered with Standard Textile to bring a new designer drapery collection to the world of hospitality.

Inspired by the sophisticated pop of color on a designer necktie or pocket square, the Meg Fiora Collection for Standard Textile provides bold designs as well as more subtle, classic elements.
