

Layout and Planning:

Panels are shipped to clients at 40" width and will need to be trimmed to required width as stated on the specification sheet. Panels should be laid out to a similar width across the wall space, or an inch or two taken to best match each panel edge for a consistent and uniform result.

The installer must be aware of any natural shading and lay out panels to his/her best judgement or the preference of the end user.